You don't have to be a professional bodybuilder in order to get a rock-hard body. Still, you will need to train and eat like a bodybuilder if your goal is a cut, lean, defined and bulked-up physique. Achieving a sculpted, rock-hard body takes time, dedication and plenty of hard work, but sticking to an intense workout schedule and eating healthy, protein-rich foods will reap the best results.

The type of training you'll be doing for the Rock Hard Challenge breaks down muscle tissue, so you need to feed your body to make sure you don't lose muscle mass. Second, you need to cut calories so that you're in a deficit, allowing your body to shed fat. When you cut calories your body tries to hold on to body fat and burn muscle tissue.
